The IIHM Bangalore campus is located in the vibrant Indiranagar area, ensuring that our students have a comfortable transit to and from the campus. The Bangalore campus has been built with a professional centric approach and so, we have 2 practice kitchens, 2 practice restaurants, 1 mock hotel room, a well-stocked library, well equipped IT Lab and classrooms with ample audio and video aids. To compliment this professionally crafted environment, we have a teaching team that comes with a vast range of experience in the Hospitality & Tourism sectors. Our faculty and Management team are a perfect mix of all cultures that adds to the core value of our Institute.

Through our campus, IIHM gives you the opportunity to study at UK's most renowned University: University of West London (UWL), London, UK. The degree is recognised worldwide and accepted as a symbol of high quality education. IIHM has collaboration with University of West London (UWL), London, UK, which is very popular for a wide range of studies at London, UK (Subject to obtaining a UK Visa and supported by Visa regulations). University of West London is world renowned for its BA Hospitality Management programme and the BA Culinary Arts Course. Being the center of excellence, the university is the best choice for a large number of international hotels in London to source Hospitality management students. Alongside the studies, students are also allowed to work 20 hrs. per week.
